Hedstrom-Dreyer Wedding Solemnized at St. Mark's

Before a flower-banked altar in the St. Mark's Presbyterian Church in Lomita at 7 o'clock on Saturday, June 25, Miss Judy Hedstrom, pledged her marriage vows with Harold Dreyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Johanson, 26234 Eshelman Ave., Lomita. Parents of the bride are Mrs. Ruby Barker and Mr. H. Hedstrom, both of Harbor City.

Mrs. James Willacy, organist, played the wedding marches and accompanied Dan Marshall, who sang, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer." The Rev. Eldon Durham, pastor, officiated at the vow exchange.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. Fashioned with a portrait neckline, the gown had long pointed sleeves, fitted torso and a bouffant skirt with chapel train. A queen's crown of lace and pearls held the illusion veil. Orchids and carnations formed the bridal bouquet. Mr. Hedstrom walked to the altar with his daughter.

In a mint green organza gown and carrying mint green carnations, Miss Barbara Ashton served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Mildred Dreyer and Susan McCann. They wore yellow taffeta and carried yellow carnations.

Rings were carried by Jeffery Shevenko and Robert Dreyer stood as best man. Ushers were Thad Ashton, Jerry Williby and Larry Posberg. A reception was held in the

In Torrance Markets

BEFORE THE SEASONS CLOSE YOU'LL HAVE TO HURRY IF YOU WANT: Fresh Dungeness Crab. Season closes July 15. During the closed season there'll be plenty of frozen crabs and crab meat: Dungeness; King Crab.

Fresh Asparagus. You'll have to "dig" to find it. Some still coming from southern California fields, but Central Valley fields are going to fern. You won't have to do without; much fine quality asparagus frozen and canned.

ABUNDANT FRUITS AND VEGETABLES
 Avocados. Fine crop of summer varieties.
 Apricots. Plentiful, but the season always seems too short.
 Apples. . . not exactly abundant now, but weather perfect for their growth. All indications point to a fine crop.
 Figs to be much more plentiful shortly.

Grapes from desert vineyards are about all harvested. Other areas are coming in . . . mostly with Cardinals and Thompson Seedless.
 Melons. This is melon time . . . and almost every kind is in market.
 Nectarines. July is their month and after that shipments fall off rapidly. Some favorite varieties here, and the season has a long way to go.
 Plums. Santa Rosas abundant, while later varieties are showing up. Top quality crop.
 Fine vegetables . . . cauliflower, cabbage, carrots, celery, corn, cucumbers, lettuce, peppers, romaine, squash (summer, yellow crookneck and zucchini), tomatoes improving in quality.

REPORTS FROM FISHERMEN:
 Shrimp and scallops in good supply. Also abundant are halibut, sea bass, Dover sole fillets, rockfish fillets and fresh California sardines. Fishermen highly recommend barbecuing fresh sardines as a succulent treat. Serve with warm sourdough French bread.

OTHER PROTEIN FOODS:
 Eggs, of course, they are plentiful. Beef to be featured quite generally. Lamb is in good supply, and while interest in pork diminishes in warm weather you'll find ham at eye-catching prices. Chickens and turkeys . . . yes, and carrying low price tags. Milk, cheese and other dairy products are "naturals" for warm weather meals.

Berries. Bushberries reaching toward peak of season, but strawberry shipments are reduced . . . the freezers are picking them up.
